CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY

WEDNESDAY, MAY 4, 1927.

The Convention reassembled as above at 9.30 A. M., the Bishop in the Chair.

The President opened the Session with prayer.

The Rough Minutes were read and approved.

The COMMITTEE ON DISPATCH OF BUSINESS presented the Order of Business, which was adopted.

The SECRETARY OF THE CONVENTION presented the Report as follows:

The Secretary of the Convention reports that during the past year he has endeavored to fulfil his duties as prescribed by the Constitution and Canons so far as possible.

On February 1st, the Canonical requirement, only 42 of the 219 Parish and Mission Reports were returned, several of which were very incomplete. This is a very serious matter if we are to obtain the proper statistics of the Diocese and will be even more serious next year when the Triennial Report for the General Convention must be prepared. Also these are not merely the Reports of the Accounting Warden, as so many seem to think, but a record of all the Parish activities and interests. Even if the details are not printed, the Report is kept as a permanent record and should be complete.

In several cases the Balance reported is very evidently merely the difference between the Receipts and Disbursements, rather than the actual cash on hand, since the two sides do not balance owing to mistakes in addition.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LENTEN OFFERING

Mr. C. R. Woodruff offered the following Preamble and Resolution, which was adopted:

WHEREAS, A striking situation and opportunity presents itself to the people of this Commonwealth at the November election. For many years the development of the institutions of Pennsylvania for the care and treatment of the insane, the feeble-minded and epileptics, and for the confinement and rehabilation of offenders has not kept pace with the great and recognized needs of these classes. The result is that at the present time the State is inadequately equipped to perform one of its chief functions. The people of Pennsylvania must face this situation squarely and decide whether or not the State shall be provided with the facilities necessary to afford sufficient and scientific care to these, its helpless wards, and to maintain human and constructive confinement of its offenders;

AND WHEREAS, the Legislature of 1925 proposed an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth authorizing a capital expenditure of $5,000,000 a year for ten years for these purposes. This proposed amendment was unanimously passed again by the Legislature of 1927 and will be submitted to the voters for ratification at the November 1927 election; Be it

Resolved, That Churchmen, Clerical and Lay, everywhere in the State, are earnestly urged not only to support this amendment by their affirmative vote, but to aid the various organizations working for its adoption so that Pennsylvania may make adequate provisions for the helpless and gain its rightful place among the States of the Nation.

The Rev. G. H. Toop offered the following Resolutions, each of which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Diocese of Pennsylvania in Convention assembled wishes Godspeed to the deliberations of the World Commission on Faith and Order, which is to assemble at Lausanne in August, and assures it of our prayers for God's blessing upon its labors for Church unity; And be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Convention be directed to communicate to the Secretary of the World Commission on Faith and Order the sentiments of the above Resolution.

The Rev. Dr. Toop offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Diocese of Pennsylvania congratulates the Joint Diocesan Lesson Board upon the completion of fifty years of work among the Sunday Schools of the Church and assures it of our continued interest in and prayers for its welfare.

The Rev. A. R. VanMeter offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention appreciates the splendid and successful efforts of Dr. Charles C. Harrison in raising over One Quarter of a Million Dollars for the Washington Memorial Chapel at Valley Forge and sends to him a Vote of Thanks for this self-sacrificing work for the Diocese and the whole Church.

The Rev. T. L. Gossling for the COMMITTEE ON ARRANGEMENTS presented the following bills, which were ordered referred to the COMMITTEE ON EXPENSES:

Luncheons during the Sessions $615.00; Amplifiers $185.00.

Mr. Gossling offered the following Resolutions, each of which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Committee on Arrangements be instructed to arrange for the employment of the Public Address System for the Convention of 1928.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Convention be tendered to the Rector, Wardens and Vestry of the Church of The Holy Trinity for the use of their buildings for the meeting of the Convention.

The Chair appointed the following:

Chancellor of the Diocese, Mr. J. Wilson Bayard; Register of the Diocese, the Rev. A. H. Hord. Also the Committees on Arrangements, Canons, Charters, Dispatch of Business, Elections, Expenses (for personnel see pp. 6, 7).

The Rev. L. N. Caley offered the following Resolutions, each of which was adopted:

Resolved, That 650 copies of the JOURNAL be printed and distributed as usual.

Resolved, That the next Annual Convention be held on Tuesday, May 1, 1928, at such place and hour as the Bishop and Standing Committee may appoint.

Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Diocese be authorized to pay the honorarium of one hundred dollars to the Assistant Secretary of the Convention.

Resolved, That 300 copies of the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese be printed.

Resolved, That the Bishop be authorized to appoint after the adjournment of the Convention the usual Committees and Commissions.

Resolved, That after the reading of the Rough Minutes and Prayers by the President, the Convention adjourn sine die.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Committee on Elections be authorized to secure help in counting the Ballot in 1928.

The Rough Minutes were read and approved.

After prayer and benediction by the President the Convention adjourned sine die.

RICHARD J. MORRIS,
Secretary of the Convention.

CHARLES S. LYONS,
Assistant Secretary.

The Rt. Rev. Julius W. Atwood, D.D., formerly Bishop of Arizona, assisted in the Confirmation for three months this Spring. It is always a pleasure to welcome visiting Bishops to the Diocese for such duty and it would not be possible to complete our schedule of Confirmation during the busy Season of Lent without such assistance.

Bishop Atwood has many warm friends in this Diocese and our Clergy and people were delighted to welcome him. I am happy to say that he was equally well pleased with his visit, and that he has promised to come again in 1928.

Rev. Dr. James De Wolf Perry

In addition to our commemoration at the celebration of the Holy Communion, it is fitting that we should pay a special tribute to the memory of one who was loved and revered by all who knew him, James De Wolf Perry, President of the Standing Committee of this Diocese for the past twenty-five years. Many times during these years he acted for the Committee which was the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese, because of the absence through illness of the Bishops under whom he served. Of him, until quite recently, it could be said "his eye was not dim, nor his natural force abated." Dr. Perry served in this Diocese nearly all his ministry; for forty years of that period he was Rector of Calvary Church, Germantown, and for the past twenty years Rector Emeritus. He was a trusted counsellor and unfailing friend; one upon whose good advice and loyalty his Bishops, his Diocese and his brethren could always depend. His saintly life has been a great lesson to us; its memory will be an inspiration. We thank God for the good example of his life and for our personal knowledge that with the great apostle he could say, "I have finished my course, I have kept the faith, henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness." We rejoice that having served faithfully to the end, he has now entered into the fuller joy and peace of the life of the spirit in God's Paradise of Rest.

"Gone to his rest in ripeness of old age
Without a spot upon the pure white page
Of his most noble life."

Among the notable buildings completed this year may be mentioned the Collegiate Chapel of St. Andrew of the Philadelphia Divinity School.

Improvements in the Diocese

The new Nurses' Home at the Episcopal Hospital, given by Mrs. John A. Brown, Jr., in memory of her husband.

The Dormitory of the House of the Holy Child.

The Nave of St. John's Church, Cynwyd.

The Rectory of St. John's Church, Norristown, erected by the Rector in memory of Harriet Cornelia Prevost.

I should also mention the beautiful Chapel which has been provided in the Bishop's House—the gift of the Rev. James Martin Niblo. The furnishings of the Chapel are so constructed that they can be readily removed when a Bishop's House is erected on the Cathedral site.

There are other buildings under process of erection which will be mentioned next year, when completed.

A list of other improvements will be printed in the Journal as usual.

The opening of the Divinity School Chapel was a red-letter day in our history, as it was the first public service held by a Bishop of London in this Diocese, which from the organization of Christ Church until the Revolution was under the spiritual care of his predecessors. It was also a privilege to have the Bishop present at the commemoration of the Fifteenth Anniversary of my Consecration. The new building is the most beautiful Chapel of any Divinity School in our own country or abroad. With the increasing number of students (there being now nearly sixty undergraduates) the School is seriously hampered for lack of a dormitory and the need of larger endowments.

Of these I do not intend to speak at present, but I desire to say a few words about some practical assistance that can be rendered to our students. It is difficult to find work for them, and they all need it. There are many parishes where one or more students with the youthful enthusiasm that they bring to their work, could be employed to good advantage as Sunday School teachers or to take charge of clubs, as well as to act as lay readers. My message today, however, is especially to the laity. Many of the students are filling secular positions, but it would be a great help if more of them could do so. It is true that they can only give part time, usually afternoons and evenings, and as a rule business men are not hospitable to the thought of engaging men for part time. At the same time this is a practical way in which you can help these young men, and it would be a real service to the Church. I therefore appeal to you to do your utmost to help in this good work, and if you can use any of these young men for part time, afternoons or evenings, please communicate with the Dean.

The Diocesan Campaign

The most outstanding event of the past year was the Campaign for the Missions and Institutions of our Diocese. In reporting the success of the effort, I think we may all concede that it was the greatest step forward that this Diocese has taken since its organization, and that it marks a new era in our progress. Too much credit cannot be given to the leaders who gave their time and talent so generously to the direction of the Campaign, and as a matter of record for future reference, I have attached a brief report for insertion in the Journal. It is not possible to give the list of all the workers representing the parishes and missions numbering over 1,600.*

During the Campaign 20,142 separate pledges were received, amounting to a total of $2,010,690, for the five-year period. At first sight this may seem far from our goal of $3,500,000, but many of these pledges are for one year, and we confidently hope that they will be renewed for four additional years. New pledges will also come in, and we are going forward with faith that during the five-year period we will accomplish all set forth in our program.

A Constructive Program

I have known the work of the Diocese of Pennsylvania rather intimately for over twenty-five years, and with some knowledge of our history since its organization, I do not hesitate to say that this is the first time that a Bishop of Pennsylvania and his advisors could begin a new year with a constructive program of real magnitude and take steps to carry it on for a five-year period.

* See Footnote A, page 89.

When we considered the allotment of the receipts for the first year it was manifest that the assignments to Missions would be much more difficult than to Institutions, as nearly forty Missions were on the program. The Bishop and Missionary Council met and agreed on those that were most necessary for the first year. This selection was approved by the Presidents of the Woman's Aids to the Convocations. We then called together the Missionaries to consider the matter, and without announcing the selection made we asked the Missionaries for their advice and counsel, and having faith that their judgment would coincide with ours, I frankly told them that I would be governed by their advice.

Plans Have Unanimous Approval

It gives me great pleasure to announce that after the individual presentation of every case, the Missionaries with unanimity made their selection, and with one exception it was exactly the same as that already suggested by the Bishop, the Missionary Council and the Presidents of the Woman's Aids to the Convocations. This one item has been added, so that our constructive Missionary program for this first year has met with the unanimous approval of everyone vitally interested in its execution. I am very happy to state that in every step taken in the Campaign similar unanimity prevailed. With the continuance of such a spirit there is no task too great for us to undertake.

That the Convention may understand the significance of this forward step I enumerate for your information what we have already done and what steps we have taken to carry out during the present year as part of our program.

1. We paid to the National Council $20,481.93, to make up the balance due of the $160,000 pledged by this Diocese towards the deficit.

2. We paid to the National Council $51,923.58, to make up in full the pledge of $250,000 for the Missionary work of the Church as pledged by this Diocese for 1926.

3. We have paid to the City Mission for the improvements made in the new power plant at the Home for Consumptives $30,000.

4. We have paid to the Sheltering Arms for the extra expenses incurred in changes in the buildings, $8,000.

5. We have paid to the Church Farm School towards the reduction of the indebtedness caused by purchase of ground and building operations, $25,000.

6. We have paid to Christ Church Hospital $2,500.

7. We have paid on account of the purchase of new properties contracted for before the Campaign—

For Rhawnhurst property, $6,000.
For Frankford property, $7,880.
For Cathedral enterprises, $70,000.

8. We have authorized the following constructive work to be carried out at soon as plans and specifications are approved and the contracts awarded:

The erection of the first unit of buildings at Rhawnhurst; at St. George's, Venango; for the Church of the Redeemer, Springfield; for St. Mary's Mission, Chester; also

The completion of the Parish House of St. Barnabas, Germantown; also

The erection of a Parish House at Collingdale;

The purchase of a site and such building expenditures as may be immediately necessary for the Transfiguration Mission in South Philadelphia.

9. Towards the new building operation at the Episcopal Hospital we have allotted for this year the sum of $200,000 which we will pay as soon as contracts are awarded.

10. To Galilee Mission, towards the Industrial plant, $40,000.

11. For St. Andrew's Chapel at State College, $40,000.

Principles Applied in Allocations

In making these allocations the first principle applied was that every Mission and Institution would receive in full the amounts designated for them in pledges; second, that the total allocations at present would be in proportion to the amount pledged, excepting for Missionary work; third, for Missionary work where construction is needed, it was manifest that this could not be done in sections and therefore we are endeavoring to carry out this part of the program in full, making the necessary reductions in the Missionary program by eliminating for the present, sites for new churches and other needs that are not immediately pressing; fourth, unless specially designated, we have also omitted as far as possible allocations for investment funds of which only the income is to be used.

Through additional pledges during the five-year period we expect to restore all the items that have been omitted. To accomplish this end we have continued our campaign organization and will hold an annual meeting of all officers, Convocation leaders and Parish workers so that the necessary steps may be taken to complete the program.

The campaign has had many far-reaching results. It has been a great stimulus to all our work; it has aroused the interest of many who are anxious to see our Church in its corporate mission bearing a stronger witness in the community, and manifesting the vital interest of the whole body in the work of our Missions and Institutions. Furthermore, it is my conviction also that the Campaign has done much to stimulate increased attendance at the services of the Church.

The total amount allotted for this year will be over $700,000—a very large sum—but I am sure that in our rejoicing over this notable achievement we all think of the deeper and more spiritual significance represented in the greater opportunities for service by our missions and institutions—through the generous gifts of our people.

It is impossible to measure the success of missionary mass-meetings for inspiration by the numbers who attend or the enthusiasm aroused; they mean much or little in the progress of the Kingdom of God in proportion to the spirit of consecration to which they lead. The primary purpose of the Bishops' Crusade was to emphasize the need of personal religion and personal service. Let us realize, then, that as the Crusade was in a true sense a teaching mission, its work is not completed; it has hardly begun. The sectional meetings were a great success and have been followed in many places by Parochial Missions. The members of the Church, both clergy and laity, know that there is great need for deepening the spirit of personal religion everywhere and for a clearer recognition of the obligation of personal service. We bid you, therefore, to remember that "He who hath begun a good work in you will go on completing it." The Crusade should be interpreted by each one of us as individuals:

The Bishops' Crusade

Every clergyman knows that it is his bounden duty to inculcate in his people the spirit of personal devotion and loyalty to our Lord, Jesus Christ.

All communicants, men and women, should feel that it is their duty by their Christian influence and Christian example to render personal service for the upbuilding of the Kingdom of God. When the Crusade suggested by the Bishops becomes a real crusade of the clergy of the Church, and then so touches the hearts of our people that it becomes a people's crusade, to bring back to the Church those who have erred and strayed and to bring the blessings of the Gospel into the lives of those who know not the revelation of God in Jesus Christ—then indeed we will begin to reap its fruits. This cannot be done in a season; let us co-operate, therefore, with those who are continuing the work, and go forward with patience and with confidence that the Holy Spirit will lead us, so that eventually a plentiful harvest will be reaped.

Personal Service a Duty

The Committee appointed to prepare for a Church display at the Sesqui-Centennial, illustrative of the history and activities of our Diocese, discharged its duties with great fidelity and success. The work was well and faithfully done and the exhibit was a credit to the Diocese; it was awarded a silver medal and diploma, which we will preserve in our archives.

Sesqui-Centennial

I am glad to announce that certificates and bronze medals also have been awarded by the Sesqui-Centennial Association to Dr. Washburn and to Mr. Stockman. These awards will be presented at the close of this address. A brief report of the Committee is attached for publication in the Journal.* In addition to the exhibit, the historic shrines of Old Christ Church, St. Peter's, and Gloria Dei were visited by many thousands of people during the exposition.

In this connection, attention should also be directed to the fact that Wednesday of last week, April 27th, marked the Two Hundredth Anniversary of the laying of the cornerstone of the present building of Christ Church, erected on the site of the original edifice. We tender our congratulations to the Rector of the mother Church for the appreciation of his service by the Sesqui-Centennial Association, and to him, his vestry and his congregation on this notable anniversary which reminds us that in the old historic building of our Church the organization of our National Church was completed.

About fourteen years ago the Chapel at Valley Forge was in financial straits. Part of the walls of the Nave had been built and a temporary roof put on so that services could be maintained, but there was a large indebtedness, and the Vestry officially appealed to me to organize a committee to raise the necessary funds to pay the indebtedness and complete the Chapel. At my request Dr. C. C. Harrison agreed to secure the funds to complete the Chapel, provided that the indebtedness was first paid. This was finally accomplished and the indebtedness of over $10,000 was removed.

Washington Memorial Chapel, Valley Forge

In 1915 I made a report to the Convention that "it was deemed necessary to secure the property against alienation." It was at that time transferred to Bishop Rhinelander, Dr. Harrison and myself as Trustees and we agreed to transfer it to the Trustees of the Diocese after the completion of the building and its memorials. The Chapel was finished some years ago; all the memorial windows have now been put in, and the property has been conveyed to the Trustees of the Diocese. As is well known, the Rev. Dr. Burk, the Rector of Valley Forge Parish, conceived the idea of building the Chapel, and the project was the result of his vision. He has given all his time to the work. Day after day he meets with the many pilgrims who visit this beautiful Chapel, and to him full credit is due for his inspiration. For the accomplishment of the great work of completing the Chapel the credit is due to Dr. Harrison; the task undertaken by him was a very arduous one. It is interesting to note that of the sum of $278,000 raised since 1914 for the Chapel, Dr. Harrison personally secured signatures to subscriptions amounting to over $260,000. Before the property was turned over to the Trustees all bills against it were fully paid and the accounts duly audited by certified accountants. In addition, Dr. Harrison has executed deeds of trust transferring to the Church Foundation the amounts given as endowment for memorials and other sums secured by him which are designated to be used for repairs of the buildings, etc. These endowments amount to $104,720.58. All the expenses of keeping the accounts and of administration have also been paid by the managing Trustee without using a penny of the funds given to him.

As a fellow-trustee of Dr. Harrison, knowing his great devotion to this task and the labor involved, the frequent journeys to distant places at his own expense, the valuable time he has given without stint, I desire to express to him not only my personal gratitude but also on behalf of the Diocese to officially thank him for his successful efforts in raising the funds to complete this beautiful Chapel and in securing the funds for its repairs and care for the generations to come.

I have spoken so frequently during the past six months on the subject of the Cathedral site, that it is not necessary at the present time to do more than officially report to the Convention the purchase of a site of one hundred acres in the upper Roxborough section, with a frontage on Ridge Avenue, and also on the new boulevard, which will at some time in the near future be built from Bryn Mawr to Chestnut Hill. With the unanimous approval of the Cathedral Chapter, the general character of the project has been changed and our conception enlarged, so that we have provided not merely a site on which a Cathedral Church may be erected in the future, but also having sufficient acreage to accommodate many Diocesan Institutions which eventually will be compelled to move from their present locations. The site is a superb one for such a purpose, being on the highest ground between Philadelphia and Reading and in a neighborhood which within the next fifteen years will be a center of the population of the city and surrounding neighborhood, within a radius of fifteen miles. I will not attempt to further describe the site at the present time, as it must be seen to be fully appreciated. We propose to have a Diocesan Day on the grounds on Saturday, May 21, at 3 o'clock, under the auspices of the Church Club and the Cathedral League, and every member of the Convention is invited to be present at that hour to view the site and to hear some suggestions about its development.

The Cathedral Site

I commend to your consideration some suggested changes in the Canon on the Cathedral Foundation. The first provides for carrying out the instructions of the Convention through the adoption of a by-law instead of by requiring an application to the courts for an amendment to the Charter. A great deal might be said on this subject; but I do not think it is necessary to do more than to point out, that the Canon contains a proviso that these by-laws cannot be changed without approval of the Convention so that the interests of this body are properly safeguarded without amending the Charter.

The Cathedral Foundation

The amendment to Section 7 of Canon XVI regarding the election of Canons is one on which there may be difference of opinion. It gives to the Bishop great power in the selection of members to be nominated for election to the Chapter; but such selection must be approved by the Standing Committee before being presented to the Convention, and in the amendment although the Bishop and Standing Committee have the responsibility of this original choice, the Convention retains the power to reject the selection and to refuse to make the nomination. For the better selection of the proper persons to serve in positions of such responsibility we firmly believe that there are decided advantages in providing that a small body, like the Bishop and Standing Committee, can, after a full and free discussion, select the names to submit to the Convention for nomination.

Pursuant to the endorsement of the Convention and the approval of the Standing Committee, the Charter for The Church Foundation was duly granted and the Corporation is now organized. For what seemed to be good legal reasons, conferences have been held looking towards a merger of The Church Foundation and The Trustees of the Diocese. As it is manifest that such a subject requires the careful consideration of the two respective bodies, I suggest the adoption of a resolution authorizing such a merger after recommendations to that effect have been adopted by the Board of Directors of The Church Foundation and The Trustees of the Diocese and approved by the Standing Committee. After such a merger has been approved by the Court the necessary changes in the Canon can be presented to the Convention of next year to define the relation between the merged Corporation and the Diocese.

In this connection we desire to call your attention to a list that has been compiled giving the corporate titles of the Institutions of the Diocese, for use of lawyers and trust companies and others in drawing up wills; copies of this list may be secured at the Secretary's desk. I commend The Church Foundation to your favorable consideration in making your wills, and urge that bequests be stated in general terms so that the Church may have some freedom to carry out the spirit of the Testators. As example we may state that there are today in Philadelphia, institutions for the education of orphan girls with funds amounting to over fifteen million dollars and with a steadily decreasing demand for institutional training. There are few institutions for boys—only one in the Church (our Church Farm School) and few for old men (none belonging to the Church). Even if the Testators desire to leave bequests for orphan girls, it is much better to leave them to The Church Foundation in trust to use for orphans, and without further restrictions so that the Church can change its methods of work and ministration according to the need of the age and thus perform the greatest service for the benefit of the children.

Personally, I am a firm believer in the wisdom of attaching to every such bequest a statement that when in the judgment of The Church Foundation it is no longer needed for the special purpose preferred by the Testator it may be used for other work of the Church. As The Church Foundation is controlled by the Convention, such bequests will have an ideal safeguard.

I desire to lay before the members of the Convention for serious consideration a matter of paramount importance to the future of the Church. The conditions to which I will refer prevail not only in this Diocese but throughout the country—particularly in the large centers of population. I am presenting this to you after careful consideration, not with the hope that we will find an immediate solution, but with the conviction that the matter presented also requires the careful consideration of our clergy and of our laity. I hope that serious attention will be given to it, especially by those trained in the law, and by other members of this Diocese who have had experience in the world of finance; to them we must look for competent advice which at some time in the near future may lead to action by this Convention.

A Matter for Serious Consideration

The admission of the laity to a voice in the councils of the Church and to take their part in legislation and administration was one of the great contributions made by the Church in America. We believe that it was in a true sense an adaptation of ancient principles to democratic ideals. The responsibility for the decision to make this notable change rested largely on Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, Delaware and the Colonial Churches of the South. It is a matter of history that at that time it was opposed by other sections and that its incorporation into the law of the Church was largely due to the wise leadership of the first Bishop of Pennsylvania.

We should realize that those momentous changes were imposed on a parochial system carried to the colonies from the Mother Church. This system was admirably suited to the colonial settlements in rural districts and small towns. No one at that time dreamed of such changes as have taken place. A century ago in this city parochial bounds were rigidly observed. The city was small and compact, covering but a few square miles. The site on which stands this Church where we are meeting today was out in the open country. Each new district as it grew up was a local community and had its own Parish Church. It is rather startling to recall that in New York, less than one hundred years ago, a proposition was seriously considered to build a city wall about a mile from where Grace Church now stands. At that time it was thought that the city could never possibly pass beyond such limit.

Changes Imposed on Parochial System

The parishes in colonial days and until a few generations ago were "family" churches and it was doubtless supposed that from generation to generation the descendants of the founders would continue to attend them. Many of the churches in the crowded cities no longer have parochial boundaries; in a true sense they are congregations, not parishes. Most of the people come from long distances and in many of the congregations there are few, if any, descendants of those who originally built the Church or who gave towards the endowment.

As the property is held by the congregation, it is apparent with these changes the entire assets representing large sums of money given for ground, buildings and endowments of the Protestant Episcopal Church, are held today by local corporations whose membership is continuously changing. In a number of instances congregations became so small that the property was alienated and some were foreclosed by mortgages. In other instances endowments have shrunk or been spent. Some Vestries, recognizing these dangers, took steps to safeguard the future by providing for what is practically a self-perpetuating Vestry—or for a limited franchise exercised only by a few pewholders; but though wisely conceived, this surely does not represent the democratic principles on which the Church is founded. We all believe in the democratic principles established in our Church and, because we believe in them, I think the time has come when they should be given a wider significance. The whole Church, that is, the whole Diocese, should have some voice in the work within its borders, in its conduct, in the decision about its continuance, or its cessation, or its transfer to other sections.

Membership Is Changing

The creation of the Federal Reserve System may be taken as an object lesson to apply to our present conditions. As I understand it, this system does not sacrifice the independence of action of the banks, but it provides for an interdependent action, which mutually protects, conserves and co-ordinates the interests of all. Without taking away from the independent action of any Vestry or congregation in the conduct of its own affairs, where a vigorous work is being carried on and which is ministering to the needs of the community where it is established; we certainly should be able to devise some plan of interdependent action to insure that the resources of the churches are being most wisely used for the upbuilding of the Church and the good of the community.

Federal Reserve an Object Lesson

When the time comes that a church property should be sold or removed to another neighborhood, or change the character of its work, because it is surrounded by a different community from that which existed when it was built, the corporation of today holding all the assets of such a parish should not alone represent the Church in such momentous decisions. When a parish has reached the stage that with diminishing members it can no longer render the same service as in generations past, or can no longer do a work that is worth while in the community, the problem of how to conserve the work of the Church in such a parish is one that should engage the interest of the whole Church in the Diocese. We may as well face the facts and take into consideration the great change in the business centers of our city and that many congregations are steadily and rapidly diminishing.

And in this day and generation when the property and endowments are still in the hands of men competent to consider the interests both of the local congregation and the Diocese, definite steps should be taken to safeguard the future. There is little protection in our present system with our changed conditions. We are not using our resources to the best advantage. Rectors and Vestries in many crowded districts are looking to the future with much discouragement, and yet if we could consider the work of the Diocese as one, there would not be the slightest reason for discouragement, but we would be able to welcome many of our problems as greater opportunities for service. Our churches must not become a congeries of isolated units competing with one another. We need increased co-operation and co-ordination in the work of the Church if we are to make any impress on the community and wisely prepare for the future.

Another matter deserving our attention as part of the same problem of the ownership of Church property, is the State Law of disfranchisement of the Clergy.

The State Laws governing Church Corporations do not represent the true spirit of our democracy. According to the laws of Pennsylvania, property must be held subject to the control of lay members of the Corporation, and on all questions of sale or disposal of property, the clergy who are members of Corporation are deprived of their vote both in the parish and in the Convention. The object of the law, it is said, was to prevent the accumulation of property held by religious corporations, using the word "religious" in its medieval sense as a corporation composed entirely of clergymen. Of course, such a theory of ownership was never advocated by the Protestant Episcopal Church.

State Law Operates Against Clergy

The anomalous inconsistency of the present situation, however, is best illustrated by the fact that the property of the Roman Catholic Church is all held by the Bishop as an individual and at his death passes to the control of his successor, and yet in our Church no clergyman who is a member of a Corporation (though generally as in a Vestry only one among seven or ten or twelve laymen) has a right to vote on questions involving transfer or sale of property.

We do not advocate the system followed by the Roman Catholic Church—it is alien to all our conceptions, and would not suit a democratic organization such as ours. On the other hand, to deprive the clergy of a vote is subversive of every true principle of democracy and of Church polity. We are naturally conservative in Pennsylvania, and for that reason better prepared to give these important matters careful and wise consideration. In addition, there is a special responsibility resting upon us in this city, where the Nation was born and the Church organized. With the same spirit of patience we must seek to make our Church and Institutions represent the principle of democracy and yet hold fast to the old traditions and conserve the interests and resources of the Church we love. Therefore I would earnestly urge the appointment of a Committee to carefully consider this whole subject of our Church corporations and the protection of our property and endowments.

Overthrows True Principle of Democracy

Of the General Missionary work of the Church I will not speak at length, as we have set a time apart for a discussion on this subject. Every member of the Church should keep clearly in view the distinction between our pledges for the maintenance of existing work in the Diocese and in the National Church, and the gifts for special purposes or for forward work. It is a matter of grave concern that the reports from our Parishes and Missions indicate that if the entire amount which they have agreed to endeavor to raise is paid in full we will still need fifty to sixty thousand dollars ($50,000 to $60,000) to meet the pledge of the Diocese to the National Council. It is not right that year after year we should have to make special appeals for such an amount and especially to make the appeals to those who have already given generously. I would again make an earnest appeal to the Rector and delegates of every Parish that has not assumed its full share of the pledge of the Diocese to give careful consideration to their responsibility and to do everything in their power to bring their Parish up to the same standard as others in their pledge for Missionary work in the Diocese and in the Church at large.

In the years of the General Convention, the offerings throughout the country fall short of the average for the other two years of the triennium. I am convinced that this is due to the fact that many who give largely to special objects during the Convention year overlook their duty to first give through their Parishes or Dioceses their usual offerings for the maintenance of our Missionary work. I am glad to say that in Pennsylvania our offerings did not show this falling off in the Convention years and in those years gifts for special objects, including the United Thank Offering given by the women of the Church, have been in addition to our usual gifts for the maintenance of Missionary work. The Treasurer of the United Thank Offering reports that the amount received since the last Diocesan Convention is over $26,000, so that the total to date since the last General Convention is $40,012.86, being an increase of about $1,500 over a corresponding period three years ago. This year, we are confident that the Sunday School offering will exceed all past records. Let us again be careful and see to it that the offerings of the men and women are also larger than last year, so that the full addition of the Children's Offering will be manifest in the total amount raised for Missions.

The Jubilee Service to commemorate the Fiftieth Anniversary of the beginning of the Lenten Offering will be held in the Academy of Music, June 5, at 3.30.

Fiftieth Anniversary of Lenten Offering

The Church Club's interest in the children is manifested by its generous action in providing the Academy of Music for this inspiring occasion; the Presiding Bishop will be present and he and Bishop Overs will make addresses.

One year ago I ventured to state in my address that the time had come to reconsider our whole Missionary program in foreign countries and the need of developing the "native Churches instead of holding them too long under our authority" and to predict that the problem would soon become acute in China. That time arrived in a very different way and earlier than we expected. Those in authority in our Church have little to add to the conflicting stories that come to us from China. We earnestly sympathize with the leaders of our Church who have gone to China as Missionaries and teachers, but while we pray for them let us not forget the Chinese Christians upon whom the responsibility of carrying on much of our work now depends. I have not hesitated for many years to express my opinion that the Missionary work in foreign lands depends largely on the native Christian leaders. Now the time of testing has come and we all hope that many have been trained to assume such responsibility. Let us remember our Chinese brethren in our prayers and pray that God may guide them in this time of trial and give to them the heavenly wisdom needed so that they may not only bear faithful witness as servants of Jesus Christ but also develop those powers and gifts of leadership which will mould the Church of the future in China.

The World Conference of the Commission on Faith and Order will be held in Lausanne in August of this year and your prayers are also asked that the guidance of the Holy Spirit may be felt in the deliberations of this great meeting and into our divided Christendom bring more of that spirit of unity for which the Master prayed.

REPORT OF THE SESQUI-CENTENNIAL COMMITTEE

A committee of twenty-five, including Clergy, laymen and women, the Rev. Dr. Louis C. Washburn, Rector of Christ Church, Chairman, was appointed in the spring, at the request of the Executive Council, in order that the Diocese should be adequately represented at the Sesqui-Centennial. A budget of approximately $6000 was adopted and space for an exhibit acquired in the Palace of Education and Social Sciences, adjoining the public Chapel erected in that building. The Diocesan Booth, setting forth the Colonial Churches, and emphasizing the spiritual forces underlying the Revolution and the Decalaration of Independence, was opened to the public about the first of July. It was one of the first completed exhibiths in that building. A model of old Christ Church, first shown at the Centennial in 1876, was one of the most popular and distinctive features. Twenty-five thousand copies of a leaflet entitled, "Spiritual Sources from Which the Signers Drew Their Inspiration," were distributed at the Booth and in Parish Churches near the center of the city. An official visit to the Booth was made by the Bishop on Saturday, October 16th. On this occasion a revised and condensed film showing present-day activities of the Church in the Diocese was shown in the auditorium of the same building, and this was exhibited at intervals thereafter. The National Council was invited to co-operate, and sent charts and posters relative to the missionary work of the Church, which were displayed on the walls of the Booth.

Members of the Girls' Friendly Society and the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, and of the Church Mission of Help co-operated with the Sesqui-Centennial Committee by taking charge at the Booth and rendering other service to visitors. A Housing Bureau was established also and extensively advertised in Church papers throughout the country. The total expenses reported by the Treasurer of the Committee, Mr. E. H. Bonsall, were far below the original budget, amounting in all to $4241.24, of which $3200 was contributed by some sixty Parishes, and the balance advanced out of Diocesan funds.

MEMORIAL NOTICES

Of Bishops of this Church:

EDWARD WILLIAM OSBORNE, Retired Bishop of Springfield, died at his home in San Diego, California, on July 5, 1926, after a long illness, in the eighty-second year of his age. He was born in Calcutta, India, on January 5, 1845, and received his education in Gloucester, England, being ordered Deacon in 1869 by Bishop Ellicott of Gloucester and Bristol and ordained the year following. From 1869 to 1872 he was Curate at Highworth in Wiltshire and for the next three years in Devonshire. In 1876 he entered the Society of Saint John the Evangelist, Cowley, coming to the Church of that name at Boston, Massachusetts, in 1878. From 1889 to 1891 he was in charge of Saint Philip's Church, Capetown, Africa, and Chaplain of Saint George's Home, serving as Superior of the Order from 1891 to 1897. In 1898 he returned to Boston, where he remained until his consecration as Bishop Coadjutor of Springfield on October 23, 1904, by Bishops Seymour, H. C. Potter and Grafton, becoming Diocesan in 1906, at the death of Bishop Seymour. He was forced to retire from active work by increasing ill health in 1916. Always an effective Mission Preacher, he was particularly noted for the strong appeal which he made to the younger members of the Church.

Of Priests of the Diocese:

HUGH QUAIL MILLER, a retired Priest of this Diocese, died at his home on May 7, 1926, aged eighty-one years. He was born in Ireland on August 5, 1844, coming to this country in his youth, and received his early education at Washington and Jefferson College. He graduated from Nashotah House in 1875, being made Deacon the same year and ordained Priest the year following by Bishop Kerfoot. For three months he was in charge of Trinity Church, Warren, Pennsylvania, leaving there to become Missionary at Smethport, Emporium and Port Alleghany, at which latter place he built S. Joseph's Church. After a short ministry at Ridgway, he accepted a call to S. Mary's Church, Beaver Falls, with the Mission at Fairview, where he remained six years, coming to this Diocese in 1890 as Curate of Grace Church, in charge of Grace Chapel at Fortieth Street and Girard Avenue. From 1895 to 1900 he was Rector of S. Peter's Church, Weldon; from 1902 until 1908 he was Priest-in-charge of S. Stephen's Mission, Norwood; from 1909 to 1910 he was Rector of S. John's Church, Compass; a Missionary for one year; becoming Curate of Holy Comforter Memorial Chapel in 1911. Here he remained until 1916, when physical infirmities compelled his relinquishment of regular work, although he was able and glad at all times to help out by faithful service in many places when occasion offered.

HURLEY BALDY, a retired Priest of the Diocese, died at his home on May 14, 1926, aged ninety-three years. He was the senior Presbyter of the Diocese. He was born in Danville on September 18, 1832, and received his early education at S. James' College, Maryland, graduating in 1853, entering the class of '57 at the General Theological Seminary and being thus the oldest alumnus of that institution at the time of his death. He was made Deacon in 1857 by Bishop Potter and ordained Priest the year following by Bishop Bowman. His first work was as Rector of S. Mark's Church, Mauch Chunk, being in charge also of the Mission at Tamaqua and Summit Hill, when those towns were still a part of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, and where he remained until 1866. From 1868 until 1873 he was Rector of S. Paul's Church, Doylestown, and in charge of Trinity Church, Buckingham, when his health became precarious and he was compelled to give up active work. Since that time he has taken duty when it was possible in several Churches, acting as Locum Tenens at S. Stephen's Church in 1901.

ELLIOT WHITE, Archdeacon of the Foreign Work in the Diocese, died after a very short illness at Bay Head, New Jersey, on July 1, 1926, in the sixty-fifth year of his age. He was born in New York City on November 26, 1861, graduating from Williams College, Massachusetts, when he was nineteen years old, and from the General Theological Seminary in 1885, in which year he was ordered Deacon by Bishop Potter and ordained the year following by Bishop Scarborough. During his Diaconate he was Curate at Trinity Church, Trenton, New Jersey, going to Calvary Church, Americus, Georgia, at his ordination for three months, after which he became Rector of the Church of The Good Shepherd, Rocky Mount, North Carolina, together with the Mission of Saint John at Battleboro. In 1891 he became Curate at Saint John's Chapel of Trinity Parish, New York City; in 1894 Priest-in-charge at Saint Alban's Mission, Newark, New Jersey; in 1903 Rector of Saint James' Church, Long Branch; in 1906 Rector of Grace Church, Newark, together with Saint Andrew's Chapel, acting also as Rector of Saint Matthew's Church from 1910 to 1915. In 1913 he accepted a call as Rector of Saint Mark's Parish, Philadelphia, where he remained until 1920, when be became Dean of Saint Paul's Cathedral, Fond-du-lac, Wisconsin. Two years later he returned to the Diocese to look after the growing work among the Foreign-born, a duty for which he was well fitted by his knowledge of and sympathy with the Eastern peoples, acting for a short time also as Dean of the Pro-Cathedral of Saint Mary. From 1907 until his death he was in charge of the summer work at All Saints Chapel, Bay Head, New Jersey, and served as a Deputy to the General Convention of 1922.

JOSEPH MARCHANT HAYMAN, a retired Priest of the Diocese, died at his home in Chestnut Hill on July 21, 1926, in the fifty-seventh year of his age. He was born in London, England, on June 6, 1870, receiving his early education at Dulwich College. Coming to this country when he was nineteen years old, he pursued his study for Holy Orders under the late Bishop F. D. Huntington, being made Deacon in 1892 and ordained the year following. During his Diaconate he served as Curate at Zion Church, Rome, New York, accepting a call as Curate to Saint Peter's Church, Germantown, in 1893. In 1901 he became Rector of Saint Mark's Church, Mauch Chunk, in the Diocese of Central Pennsylvania, where he remained for three years, returning to Saint Peter's Church as Associate Rector in 1904. Owing to failing health he was compelled to give up active work in 1914, since which time he had taken Services as opportunity offered. In 1915 he made a very complete survey of conditions in Bucks County, which resulted in the establishment of the Country Centre Mission.

JOHN WILSON COOK, a Non-Parochial Priest of the Diocese, died at the Episcopal Hospital on All Saints Day, 1926, in the fifty-sixth year of his age. He was born in Philadelphia on September 11, 1871, and received his education at Nashotah House, Wisconsin, graduating from the College in 1899 and from the Divinity School in 1902. He was made Deacon by Bishop Nicholson in 1903 and spent the next year at The Theological Seminary, Alexandria, Virginia, where he was ordained to the Priesthood in 1904 by Bishop Gibson and served as Missionary at Ivy Depot. In 1905 he came to this Diocese, acting as Curate variously at Saint James' Church, Saint Mark's Church and The Church of The Evangelists for the next five years and helping at Saint Martin's College. In 1919 he became Curate at Saint Elisabeth's Church, where he remained until 1924. Of a modest and retiring disposition he was fond of reading and study and was always glad to be of service whenever the opportunity offered in this or the surrounding Dioceses.

JAMES DEWOLF PERRY, Rector Emeritus of Calvary Church, Germantown, died at his home on Monday in Holy Week, April 11, 1927, aged eighty-eight years. He was born in Bristol, Rhode Island, on December 22, 1838, graduating from Brown University at Providence in 1860 and from the Divinity School in Philadelphia four years later, being the oldest Alumnus. He was made Deacon in 1861 and ordained Priest in 1864. He was Assistant Minister at Grace Church, Providence, from 1861 to 1862, and at Saint Luke's Church, Philadelphia, for the next two years. He was Rector of Saint Paul's Church, North Providence, Rhode Island, from 1864 to 1866, returning to this Diocese as Rector of Calvary Church in 1866, where he served until 1908, when he was elected Rector Emeritus, being thus the Senior Presbyter of the Diocese. His indefatigable energy and intensely lovable personality are abundantly evidenced by the growth of his Parish and the very many outside offices to which he was appointed or elected by his brother Clergy. He was Dean of the Convocation of Germantown from 1886 to 1902; a member of the Standing Committee of the Diocese from 1887 and for twenty-seven years its President; Warden of the Church Training and Deaconess House from its founding in 1896; a Delegate to the General Convention in 1892 and 1898 and to the Synod from 1911 to 1923; a member of the Board of Missions from 1898 to 1910; Vice-President of the City Mission; an Overseer of the Divinity School; member of the Board of Directors of the Bishop White Prayer Book Society and of the Advancement Society, as well as of many Committees. In 1901 he was a prominent candidate for Bishop Coadjutor in this Diocese and in 1897 for Bishop Coadjutor in Rhode Island. To him came also the rare honor of acting as Chairman of four Diocesan Conventions during the balloting for Bishop. While his lectures at the Deaconess Home and in the Bible Class which he conducted for many years in his home will always be remembered by those who attended his instructions.

Consent was given to placing a Mortgage on the Parish House of the Church of The Incarnation, not to exceed $8,000.

The report of the Public Accountant of his examination of the accounts of the Treasurer of the Diocese was presented, accepted and ordered filed.

April 13, 1927.—The following Minute on the death of the Reverend James DeWolf Perry, D.D., was unanimously adopted:

"A choice vessel of God's grace was gathered unto his fathers, when, on the eleventh instant, at his home in Germantown, the Reverend James DeWolf Perry, D.D., passed peacefully beyond the vale. At four-score and eight, his eye was not dimmed nor his natural force abated.

"With high praise and hearty thanks, the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Pennsylvania makes record of our beloved elder brother's abiding place in our memories. For forty years an honored member of this Committee, and for twenty-seven of these years its revered President, Dr. Perry met every requirement of his responsible position with rare ability and faithfulness. His virile personality and clarity of mind, enriched by devotion to his Lord, loyalty to his Church, and sympathy with his fellowmen, were the more fruitful by reason of his singular charm and modesty.

"At four successive Episcopal elections here, the Convention chose him as its presiding officer. His influence in every emergency was a benediction. It is in the nurture and crowning of such a type of man and minister that the Church is justified and conquers.

"As his associates we cherish his gracious friendship in our hearts. Our profound sympathy goes out to his bereaved family.

"May light perpetual shine upon him."

May 3, 1927.—The action of the Sub-committee in reference to the Minute and Memorial to Dr. Perry was approved.

Approval was given the Church of The Good Shepherd, Queen Lane Manor, to amend its Charter by changing its name to the Memorial Church of The Good Shepherd, Germantown.

W. W. FRAZIER, JR.,
Secretary Standing Committee.

APPENDIX F

Report of the Treasurer of the Diocese

The report of the Treasurer of the Diocese for the year 1926, as audited, is herewith respectfully submitted, and attention is directed to certain outstanding features.

The amount sent to the National Council (exclusive of Priorities, Specials, and Japan Reconstruction Fund) was increased from the sum of $188,896, received from regular sources, to $260,000, due to a special gift of $10,000 and to the inclusion of an item for this purpose in the budget of the Diocesan Campaign. This was $10,000 in excess of the sum assured by the Executive Council to the National Council.

Special attention is again, this year, requested to the items attaching to the regularity of payments required by the Executive Office and the irregularity of receipts from the Parishes. The note following item 36 shows the overdraft in the Missionary Fund, by months. While interest on this overdraft amounted to $416.70 in 1926, as against $822.96 in 1925, the item is still too large.

Since January 1, 1927, the Diocesan Campaign Fund has paid $273.74 interest on advances from Missionary Fund, thereby reducing the interest paid to $142.96.

In this connection, there was included in last year's report for the first time, a table showing the frequency of remittance by Churches. Below is a comparative table for the two years:

While the average number of remittances per church in 1926 shows an increase, a detailed analysis would show that too many of the wealthier Parishes are still in the irregular and belated class, and it is to their Rectors and Accounting Wardens in particular, that the Treasurer appeals for regular monthly remittances.

Number of Remittances per Annum	Number of Churches Remitting in
	1925	1926
12	6	7
11	4	8
10	12	8
9	13	16

4	19	15
3	14	33
2	26	30
1	63	29
0	11	5
	203	206
Average number of remittances per church	4	4.77

While item 26 shows that the Missionary Fund closed the year with an overdraft of $13,531.48, reference to the Diocesan Summary (items 165 to 175) shows that the year's business was done at an actual loss of only $354.02. The loans, there referred to, were made in connection with the Diocesan Campaign and the Sesquicentennial. The former has since been refunded in full and a portion of the latter has been received.

The Treasurer desires to express his grateful appreciation to Messrs. Drexel & Co. for the continuation of the very advantageous arrangements referred to in detail in the 1925 report; to the several Parishes and Missions and to the financial agencies of the Diocese for their ready assistance in the preparation of the records comprising this report; and to the financial staff in the Executive Office for its faithful service, cheerfully given, throughout the year—especially in connection with the extra work entailed by the Diocesan Campaign.

BENJ. WEST FRAZIER, Treasurer.
W. P. BARBA, Assistant Treasurer.

APPENDIX G

Report of the Executive Council

There have been relatively few events of larger importance during the year 1926 outside of the several large financial undertakings. The Executive Council is accomplishing one of its several objects, namely, to co-ordinate the work done in different fields throughout the Diocese—with the result that many matters, which formerly were the occasion of much planning and considerable concern on the part of different Boards or Commissions, are now completed almost like routine business by the vote of the Executive Council with the financial responsibility of the Diocese behind it. Only a few other matters will, therefore, be briefly referred to, and the bulk of this Report will be devoted to the more important financial developments of the year.

Members

The policy of the Council has been to invite those who hold responsible Diocesan positions to attend the meetings of the Council in order that the Council may obtain the benefit of their advice. Pursuant to this policy Rev. F. E. Seymour, the new Director of the Department of Religious Education, has been added to the list of those invited to attend the Council meetings.

The Department of Missions and Church Extension

Settlement for lots for the work at Langhorne and for the new Mission at Rhawnhurst, the purchase of which was authorized prior to the last Convention, has since been made, and the plans are progressing for the new work at the latter station.

Also, the purchase of two additional lots for new Missions has been accomplished—one on Rowland avenue between Englewood and Wellington streets, between Frankford and Holmesburg; and the other at Comly and Large streets, near Oxford Circle.

Under the charge of a committee, money for the purpose being raised chiefly by an appeal to the Parishes, an exhibit was installed at the Sesqui-Centennial, showing the work that is being carried on in the Diocese.

Department of Finance

Certain major results have been completed during the year:

The Committee, which under the chairmanship of Mr. Wayne had raised $139,518.07 toward the $160,000 promised from this Diocese toward the accumulated deficit of the National Council, having exhausted its efforts, the balance of $20,481.93 was placed as an item upon the Diocesan Survey, and payment of the same out of funds raised by the Diocesan Campaign was made in time to enable our Diocese to be credited with its full figure of $160,000 before the books of the National Council for the year 1926 were closed.

The Diocese had also promised the National Council $250,000 for the year 1926 as against $316,000 requested of it. A Committee was appointed to assist in raising this $250,000; but, in order to avoid making a number of conflicting appeals to the members of our churches in the Diocese, it was decided that the difference between the sum contributed through the ordinary channels for the work of the National Council during the year and the figure of $250,000 should be treated as a first charge against the funds realized by the Diocesan Campaign. $198,076.42 having been paid through the usual channels, the difference ($51,923.58) was therefore sent to the National Council from this latter source, and our pledge of $250,000 was fully redeemed—indeed it was more than redeemed, as there was a special contribution of $10,000 to be credited to the Diocese in addition to the $250,000, so that the Diocese was credited in all with $260,000, or $10,000 more than the amount of its pledge.

A similar problem confronts the Diocese for the year 1927. Under the recent decision of the National Council to restrict its obligations for each year to the sums pledged by the different Dioceses, the Executive Council was again confronted in January, 1927, with the question how much it should pledge for the year 1927. The experience of several years showed that between $190,000 and $200,000 is all that can be counted on through regular channels, including Sunday-school Lenten Offerings; the figure so contributed in 1926, the largest year in the history of the Diocese, being $198,076.42. After careful consideration the Council decided to notify the National Council that it would be responsible for $250,000 in 1927. Again, therefore, the Diocese has promised a sum considerably ($66,000) below the amount asked of it by the National Council, though it must be remembered that the Committee on Quotas appointed by the General Convention is in active operation and that its report may result in a rearrangement of Diocesan Quotas and possibly a reduction in the sum asked of the Diocese of Pennsylvania in future years. It is a serious problem, however, how this difference of upward of $50,000 can be raised, and again, a committee has been appointed by the Bishop to consider the matter and to devise ways and means for raising it. For the moment, at least, it looks as if the figure of $250,000 for Missions carried on by the National Council can only be obtained in this Diocese by some special appeal.

The general financial results in the Diocese for the year 1926 show a small but steady progress. So-called divisible funds, meaning all funds received by the Treasurer and subject to division between the National Council and the Diocese, have increased $7,573.83 over the preceding year. As a result, the Diocese substantially broke even on the year's work, the exact result being a deficit in the Diocesan operations of $354.02.

Results of the Diocesan Survey and of the Diocesan Campaign, though these were not immediately under the direction of the Executive Council, were from time to time reported to the Council by the Bishop, and welcomed with Resolutions of appreciation and approval. It looks as if the only prospect of securing the considerable sums needed for development of work in the Diocese is as the result of such appeal. It is to be hoped that in years to come the responsibility of the members of our Church for the work in the Diocese may increase to such a point that the sums contributed here will be sufficient, not only to keep up the work done in the Diocese and to contribute our share of the work done by the National Council, but also to make the additional capital expenditures for new Missions and other forms of new work which are required both in the Diocese and in the National Church.

REYNOLD D. BROWN, Executive Secretary.

February 23, 1927.

THE REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION TO THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

The Department has held nine meetings during the year and considered such matters as had been referred to it by the Bishop, the Council and the various Convocations. The Department is convinced that the question of Diocesan Missions is of paramount importance because of the opportunities for development which lie before it in every direction. The future growth of the Diocese depends largely upon the amount of missionary work which we are enabled to accomplish. In the opinion of the Department the Church should be in a position to acquire a site in every new development in or near the city. There should be a special fund for this purpose.

During the year 1926 some real forward work was accomplished: the purchase of a commodious house in Langhorne to be used as a parish building and rectory for that Mission; the purchase of a site at Rhawnhurst; and the purchase of two sites, one on Rowland avenue between Englewood and Wellington streets, the other at Comly and Large streets.

The reports of the Deans of Convocation which are appointed refer to the outstanding features of the Missions in their Convocations.

Concerning the insurance premiums and the taxes on Missions, it was resolved that the Department recommend to the Executive Council for the year 1927, that one-half of the insurance premiums and taxes be paid by the Council, and for the next year and thereafter the Missions be requested to pay their own insurance premiums and taxes. This recommendation was later approved by the Council.

The work among the Colored People is carried on under the direction of Archdeacon Phillips at eight different places: St. Cyril's, Coatesville; The Ascension, West Chester; St. Mary's, Chester; S. Cyprian's, Elmwood; S. Monica's, 42nd street and Woodland avenue; S. Barnabas', Germantown; S.

Augustine's, near 20th and Columbia avenue; and a Sunday-school in All Saints' Parish Building, 11th street and Snyder avenue. The Archdeacon reports that there are "about 200,000 Colored People in the Diocese. Considering the difficulties under which the Mission stations are being carried on, owing to the absence of appropriate equipment, the work is going on encouragingly."

The work among the Foreign-born continues to be a difficult problem, but an important one. In July occurred the death of the Rev. Elliot White, who gave of his best in trying to understand and help in this work. The work is now being done under the supervision of the Diocesan Missionary, the Rev. James F. Bullitt. A solution, at least for the present, has been made for the French work: arrangement has been made with the Vestry of Holy Trinity Church, by which the work is being carried on in the buildings of Holy Trinity Memorial Chapel, 22nd and Spruce streets; the Church of Saint Sauveur has been sold, and it is hoped that the income from the invested funds will maintain the work.

During the year a Special Committee made a serious study of our work among the Italians, and accomplished something. The congregation at S. Mary of The Annunciation has assumed the financial responsibility for the Mission, with the exception of the Clergyman's salary. The work at L'Emmanuello is at a standstill; it is felt that the property should be disposed of and the work transferred to another locality.

The Department appointed a Standing Committee on Automobiles, which will have full supervision of the cars owned by the Diocese. The question of who should have them, as well as of allowance for maintenance and replacement, etc., has been a trying problem for several years. It is hoped that with this Special Committee the missionaries who use Diocesan machines will be helped to do the Church's work.

The Church Extension Fund continues to be a very dependable source for funds for special needs. The three calls in 1926 were designated for the following work: The January call, amounting to $4113.26, was for S. George's, Richmond. The April call, amounting to $3892.50, was for Holy Innocents', Tacony. The October call, amounting to $3863.96, was for Rhawnhurst.

Respectfully submitted in behalf of the Department of Missions,

JOHN E. HILL, Secretary.

CONVOCATION OF CHESTER

A mark of progress in the Convocation of Chester is the passing of The Incarnation, Drexel Hill, from a Mission to a Parish. The progress of the work here has been great from its inception. Located as it is in a growing and substantial district, there is no reason why it should not become one of the strongest Parishes of the Convocation.

The Chapel of the Redeemer, at Springfield, is making considerable progress under the leadership of the Rev. G. R. Bishop. There is no place in the Convocation that gives greater promise of early development into a Parish. We have a well-located lot and the people of the community are substantial and devoted. Each year finds an increasing population which gives every promise of being permanent.

Trinity, Collingdale, is looking forward to an early realization of its hope for new and improved buildings upon its most desirable lot. The population of the borough is greatly increasing and the work is located in a most desirable and strategic section.

At Holy Sacrament, Highland Park, the congregation has greatly outgrown its building. An enlargement could be made at no very great expense. A condition is not healthful when Sunday-school children are obliged to leave the building immediately after the session, to give place for the adult congregation. Either the school or the communicant congregation completely fills the Church and both cannot be there together. Children, therefore, cannot be trained in worship.

S. John's, Concord, and S. Luke's Chadd's Ford, are being carefully shepherded by the Rev. David Sanford, as are S. Mark's, Honey Brook, and S. Mary's, Warwick, by the faithful missionaries at these stations. We greatly regretted the loss of Mr. Spalding from the congregation, but the foundations laid by him are being faithfully and substantially built upon by his successor, Rev. J. C. Runkle.

Substantial progress has been made at S. Giles, Stonehurst, and S. James, Prospect.

At Darby a confirmation class of 43 attests the activity of the Rev. Mr. Recksecker, and the substantial subscription of this Mission to the Diocesan Campaign tells of the interest of the people in the general work of the Diocese.

S. John's, Essington, has now a Sunday-school of 181 Scholars, with 20 teachers, and in every way is showing its life and activity. A Confirmation Class of 19 was presented from this Mission.

Ascension, Parkesburg, has had and still has a hard struggle. There has been a financial collapse in the community and many have removed. The Sunday-school, however, has been built up from 12, to which it had fallen, to 42 scholars; the choir from 2 to 16 boys. The Minister in charge writes that "the faithful few are workers and still hopeful. No one thinks of giving up, but of working harder to gather others in."

CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN

The past year has seen the laying of foundations in this Convocation, the fruits of which will bless the Church a quarter of a century hence.

The great Northeast of Philadelphia is calling. The population is pouring in. The Convocation with the aid of the Diocese has purchased three strategic locations in the midst of this population, but far enough away to prevent overcrowding our present churches.

Rhawnhurst, two miles from Bustleton, Fox Chase, Holmesburg and Frankford, has seen the work spring up immediately the land was purchased, through the energy of the Rev. Paul Micou, who has started Church services and a Sunday School there. A lot about 225 feet square has been bought for about $17,000. Now a building must go up at once for the congregation which showed its enthusiasm by forgetting itself and helping with the Diocesan Campaign; and the work is being hampered for need of suitable accommodation.

At Comly and Large streets, near Oxford Circle, on the beautiful Roosevelt boulevard, has been purchased for $28,000. It would have been fine to buy it for $2800. It could have been done if the Church had bought it ten years ago; but there is no value in bemoaning lost opportunities. The only thing to do is to seize the present ones. If we do not buy today, we shall pay more tomorrow. Already this land cannot be secured for the price paid for it last year. Some day a fine church on this spot will be admired by all who travel on the Boulevard.

On Rowland avenue, between Englewood and Wellington streets, in the center of a large development between Frankford and Holmesburg, where builders tell us that within a short time sufficient houses will be erected to accommodate nine thousand people, the Diocese has bought a splendid lot for $15,000. We understand that we are the first on the ground, and are therefore anxious to erect a Mission building as soon as possible, for otherwise we may lose a great opportunity.

Thus the Convocation is doing what the best corporations do in keeping ahead of the populations, and saving the money of the Church. This, however, could not have been accomplished without the anticipated aid of the Diocesan Campaign.

The reports appended below show how well the missionaries have been doing their work. As can easily be seen, the Bucks County Centre Missions are responding nobly to the efforts of Rev. Dr. Prevost and the Rev. Charles E. Spalding. At Langhorne a large house has been purchased, which is being used as a Parish House and Rectory, and adds considerably to the efficiency of the work there. It is hoped that this Mission will soon become a self-supporting parish.

The work carried on at Hulmeville and Edgeley has been growing nicely, Hulmeville having increased its income from $687 to $1245, and Edgeley from $333 to $552. S. Andrews in the Fields, Somerton, has been added this year to the group of those Missions known as the Bucks County Missions, and has done well.

Incarnation, Morrisville, which has the largest membership of any of our Missions in Bucks County, continues its good work under the wise leadership of the Rev. S. M. Holden, who is ably assisted by Mr. T. B. Stockham. The Community House is a great asset to the influence of the Episcopal Church in Morrisville. This town, which is virtually a suburb of Trenton, is growing rapidly, several fine houses having lately been erected, and we believe that within a few years the Mission of the Incarnation will become a self-supporting parish.

The three Missions of this Convocation within the limits of Philadelphia are all doing a very useful, though very different, kind of work. S. Gabriel's, on the Roosevelt Boulevard, under the energetic leadership of the Rev. W. T. Metz, has increased its membership from 167 to 201, and its contributions from $5032 to $6000 during the past year. Surely this is very satisfactory.

The Mission of S. Barnabas is the only work carried on among our colored brethren by our Church in this Convocation, and very gratifying it is as conducted by the active Priest in Charge, the Rev. E. S. Thomas, for both the membership and contributions have also been increased there during the past year. We hope that before long the Diocese will be able to help both of these Missions to complete their Parish Houses, and that then both of them will shortly become self-supporting parishes.

For the first time this year we add the report of the Polish Mission of S. Mary's at Manayunk, which is under the care of the Rev. E. M. Baczewski, who is rendering a noble service to his people and to our Church. The work is carried on in the Church and Parish House of S. Stephen's Church, and besides the usual Church services being held, religious school is conducted two days a week after the public school, which forty Polish children attend.

CONVOCATION OF NORRISTOWN

The only change in those having charge of the Missions of the Convocation of Norristown during 1926 was at Trinity Mission, Gulph Mills, where Mr. Alfred W. Price, having entered Cambridge Theological Seminary in September, was succeeded by Mr. Fred J. G. Kepler, a second-year student at the Philadelphia Divinity School. After giving the afternoon Sunday-school and Evening Service there a thorough trial, it was decided to return to the morning schedule, with Sunday-school at 10.15 and Morning Service at 11.00. On the second Sunday of each month the Holy Communion is celebrated by the Rev. A. L. Urban. This arrangement seems to be meeting the needs of the situation adequately; but the work continues to be a struggling one, with small congregations and a Sunday-school of 35. However, the development of Hughes Park within a half mile of the Mission Chapel and the recent decision of the Upper Merion Township School Board to build their new large consolidated school in this vicinity seems to insure a considerable building development in the not-distant future. This should mark a real forward step in the life of this Mission.

The work at S. Anne's, Willow Grove, and Advent, Hatboro, under the faithful leadership of the Rev. Dr. Lamb, has manifested encouraging progress. The contributions at Hatboro last year were remarkably generous for a work of this size, 88 communicants contributing almost $2800. Both Missions contributed very generously to the Diocesan Campaign for Missions and Institutions; of which we hope they will soon be beneficiaries.

Holy Trinity, Lansdale, also made a splendid record in this Campaign, as did, in fact, all five of the Convocation's Missions. The proposed Parish Houses at Lansdale and at Willow Grove and Hatboro should mark a new and very promising era in the lives of these three Missions. The year generally at Lansdale has been very encouraging under the devoted and unceasing labors of Rev. Mr. Wilkie.

Mr. Scofield has done excellent work at Epiphany Mission, Royersford, in connection with his work at S. James Church, Evansburg, and the Mission quite plainly shows the fruits of his labors. The double duty, however, is proving too much for his strength and another arrangement will have to be made here as soon as possible.

The Department of Missions has included the stipend of a lay-reader for S. Peter's Chapel, Glenside, in its budget for 1927. This is in addition to the upkeep of the automobile of the Rev. Mr. Copeland. The Sunday-school at Glenside is most vigorous and promising and the outlook for the future of this Chapel is very bright.

CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA

The Missions in the Convocation of North Philadelphia have had a satisfactory year. Considerable progress has been made in permanent development, and the outlook for the future is full of promise, as the opportunities for growth challenge our faith and efforts. While our territory is not as extensive as the outlying Convocations, yet our district comprises the largest population, and being both a residential and great manufacturing center, calls for intensive work. It is significant that a large part of the diocesan work among the foreign-born is in the Convocation, and a number of our institutions, including our greatest charity, the Episcopal Hospital.

We had hoped that the mortgage on S. George's, Richmond, could be extinguished from the Diocesan Campaign fund, but this debt must be carried until sometime in the future. The roof was put in thorough repair last summer at a cost of $3090.77, which amount came from the Church Extension call. S. George's is also the temporary home of the Polish congregation of the Holy Redeemer, and under Rev. A. J. Arkin continues its important work notwithstanding considerable changes in the population.

The Mission of S. George's, Venango, under Rev. A. H. Hord, has had a remarkable development, with increasing congregation and a club for the men of the community numbering over two hundred members, with more than this number actually in attendance at some of the meetings. There is great need here for a modest parish building, as there is no place in the entire neighborhood where the people can assemble. It would be an inspiring revelation if our church people could visit this mission and see the men packed into the basement of the chapel.

S. Ambrose Mission under Rev. F. B. Halsey has had a year of success and steady growth. The large membership of the church organizations has caused overcrowding in the basement, and again emphasizes the need for a parish house. Some years ago the properties next to the church were purchased with this in view, and it is earnestly hoped that this project can be undertaken in the near future. For the first time in eight years this mission has been out of debt, all obligations for the new pavement, repairs to roof, and for the organ having been paid by the people themselves. Through the generosity of the Woman's Aid, the ground around the Church has been improved and beautified by the planting of shrubs, and trees, at a cost of $300.

S. Augustine's Mission continues to grow, and the increasing colored population gives assurance of the need and permanency of this work. Rev. H. S. McDuffey has had a remarkable ministry, and now has able assistance from Rev. J. H. Hudson. While the evening congregation has decreased, there has been a steady increase in the morning attendance, with an average of over two hundred, far exceeding many of the larger parishes.

One of the most interesting centers of Christian work in Philadelphia is All Souls' Church for the Deaf, where Rev. W. R. Smaltz maintains the fine traditions of the past, and ministers to his people who come from far and near. The services are well attended and most impressive, being conducted entirely in the sign language. There are nearly 300 deaf people who find in their Church not only their spiritual help but also their social and personal associations. As All Souls has met a great need for many years for the entire community, it is to be hoped that no other work of this kind will be established by any other communion; thus manifesting a spirit of co-operation instead of competition in the interest of efficiency and economy.

At the Hebrew Christian Synagogue, 517 York avenue, the activities are totally different than usual mission work, as Miss Ormsby, who is in charge, writes: "I may spend hours teaching one individual, perhaps twice a week and continue it for some time, and in fact that is what the instruction amounts to with most of our people, yet for all those hours of labor there is nothing to represent it on report save the figure one." We realize that we cannot measure pioneer work by numbers, and that one life helped and saved is worth every effort. This must all be carried on in question and confidence, but the results will come. It is this kind of missionary work that needs patient encouragement. In the recent diocesan campaign our missions responded most generously, thus showing their responsibility in building up and enlarging their own equipment.

We record with deep sorrow and regret the death on December 27th, of Mr. Charles A. Klink, who for many years was treasurer for our Convocation, and served in that important office with constant interest and untiring faithfulness. He will be greatly missed in our meetings and we extend to his family and to his associates in the Church of the Covenant our heart-felt sympathy.

The Woman's Aid, under the leadership of Miss Laura Bell, has given splendid assistance. The receipts were larger last year than at any previous time, and already $1000 is in hand for S. Ambrose Parish House, and $1000 for the parish building for S. George's, Venango. In addition, much help has been given the missionaries besides the $300 for S. Ambrose, already noted. The Woman's Aid has pledged $1000 a year for five years for the Diocesan Campaign, and this amount will be more than realized.

Once more we desire to thank Mr. Casper Wister Haines, and his sister, Miss Haines, for their gracious hospitality in welcoming our Convocation for the annual lawn fete, which was held last June at their beautiful and historic "Wyck" in Germantown.

CONVOCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

The Convocation of South Philadelphia has nothing startling to report. The sesquicentennial, our chief excitement during the year past, so inflated the prices of real estate that it was hopeless for the Church to consider the purchasing of any land for Missions during the period of the celebration. Now that it is over it is hoped that the Church will be able to advance some plans which it has had in mind, with particular reference to the Mission of The Transfiguration and the Church of S. John the Evangelist. For the former it is planned that a piece of land shall soon be purchased out of the Diocesan Campaign funds, and for the latter that substantial help be given toward the erection of a parish house. It is also desired that land be secured somewhere in the neighborhood of thirty-five hundred south on Broad street and another lot somewhere well south on a street between Twenty-first and Twenty-fourth streets. In both of those neighborhoods it is the judgment of a committee appointed to consider the matter that Missions might wisely be started.

One of the needs of the Convocation is for more work of a social-service character among those of foreign birth or parentage. It is said that there are one hundred and twenty-five thousand Italians and about one hundred thousand Negroes within the limits of this Convocation. I cannot verify these figures, but everyone who knows the Convocation is aware that there are great numbers of both of these races. There are a few organizations, notaby S. Martha's House, doing admirable work, but there is need for more such organizations. It may be that the Church would not at present be able to support a very great enlargement of its work along these lines. It is probable, however, that if she bore the need close enough to her heart she would find the means to satisfy it.

The chief activities of the Convocation, considered from the civic point of view, now that the Sesqui has gone into the limbo of dead, if not forgotten, things, seem to be politics and violations of the Eighteenth Amendment, with an occasional gang fight and murder thrown in by way of variation. So far none of the clergy has been shot, for which I suppose we ought to be thankful.

It is a necessitous part of the city, from the Church's point of view, and takes all of the time and strength and consecration of those working in it for God, to make any impression whatever upon it. If the Church were united, the task confronting it in our great cities, and particularly in the congested districts where the poor live, would be much simpler and easier of solution.

These two things for the followers of Christ, church unity and a very considerable extension of social service, are, it seems to me, the great challenges for the next generation to face. They are tremendous and vital problems filled with great potencies for good both to the Church and our civic life.

CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA

During the past year our work in our two Missions has gone on without interruption. The Rev. Mr. McKinley became Rector of Wissahickon and the work at S. Titus has been under the care since that time of Mr. Alan Tongue, a student at the Divinity School, with the Rev. A. L. Urban supplying the services of Holy Communion.

There are immense building projects going on in the district near S. Titus' Church, but too far away to augment the congregation at that site. The possibility of a removal to another site might be considered with profit.

The Rev. Dr. Schiffer works against great odds at the Church of the Holy Comforter. The district there is becoming increasingly a settled colored neighborhood. The white people are leaving that immediate vicinity and will continue so to do.

The whole West Philadelphia situation is full of difficulties. No other part of the city has been so affected with removals as has this particular section. Every Parish feels it increasingly.

On the other hand there are some immense building projects. An immense number of apartments are being, and will be built in the coming year, the permits issued for this type of building being larger in the last year than for any other part of the city. What this portends no one can prophesy. No one seems to have solved the apartment house question. The dwellers therein are irresponsible so far as community or Church obligations go. They are constantly on the move, but, of course, demand the services of the Church in the crises of their life, without doing anything to maintain the Church in their neighborhood.

The next two or three years ought to show definitely the trend in this great section, and enable a definite policy to be adopted that will meet the changed conditions. The Bishop, and the clergy of the Convocation are fully awake to all the conditions confronting this section.

Report of the Registrar of the Diocese

The Registrar acknowledges with thanks the following gifts which he has received since the last Convention:

1. A lot of old JOURNALS OF THE DIOCESE OF PENNSLYVANIA from an anonymous donor.

2. Copies of the Protestant Episcopalian and Church Register for the years 1830-31-32-33-34-35-36-37-38; copies of the Church Standard for 1905-6; copies of the Churchman, 1905-6, from Mrs. Charles Biddle.

3. Register of the Parish of the Intercessor, presented by the Reverend John Doyle, Rector of St. Philip's Church, West Philadelphia. The Intercessor was one of the old Philadelphia parishes which ceased to exist many years ago. The congregation became members of St. Philip's Church, and, as a result of this consolidation, this record of the Intercessor passed into the hands of the Rector of St. Philip's parish. The register being of no present use to that parish, the rector, acting under a canon of the Diocese, turned it over to the registrar. The book is now deposited in the fireproof vault of the Church House for safe keeping, where it is accessible to anyone who may wish to examine it.

4. The following donation of special importance and value was made by Dr. J. H. Whyte, of Wayne, Pa.:

Six volumes of picture post cards of Cathedrals and Churches of Europe and America.

Three envelopes containing portraits, taken from newspapers, of clergymen of our Church.

Two envelopes containing pictures of Cathedrals and Churches of the Old and New World.

One envelope containing photographs of Colonial Churches and Colonial Communion Silver.

This remarkable collection was inherited by Dr. Whyte from his uncle, Mr. Abner C. Baldwin. It represents the labor of a lifetime on the part of Mr. Baldwin and testifies to his love of the Church and his deep interest in its history. The gift is one which will be greatly appreciated by everyone who properly values the things that contribute to our knowledge of Church history and architecture.

The Registrar begs to report further that he has continued to perform all the usual duties of this office along the lines indicated in former reports.

A. H. HORD,
Registrar of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

APPENDIX O

Report of Work Among the Deaf

Work during the year past has continued along the usual lines. Regular services are maintained at the Church on Sundays and week-days with a steady attendance, although many Communicants live outside of the city, making pastoral work difficult. The Parish House, however, is being used increasingly for basketball and social entertainments almost nightly, with a weekly Literary Association and a monthly Charitable Organization and other groups, many of whom belong to other Churches, but are thus brought into relation with our own. In July the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Ordination of the late Henry Winter Syle was observed. Mr. Syle was the organizer and first pastor of All Souls; the service was attended by sixteen out of the eighteen Deaf Clergymen of the Church, with a congregation of 750. At the same time a Tablet was unveiled in memory of the late Warden and Benefactor, Dr. A. L. E. Crouter. One of our young men is studying at the Divinity School, but more are needed, since we have lost two Missionaries during the year. From the material side the Rectory has received an asbestos shingle roof, while numerous improvements have been made by the people themselves. An interested woman gave 2600 film slides, together with the projection machine, which has been received with great appreciation, but it would be a wonderful help if someone would provide a machine of standard size, so that we could use the regular films which can be hired.

On the other hand, the Lutheran Church is attempting to start a Mission for the Deaf; very unfortunately we feel, inasmuch as All Souls seems abundantly able to minister to these people, as it has done for three generations, so that the effort will be largely duplication and a weakening of what is already in existence. To offset this every worthy means should be used. Many of the children at the School in Mt. Airy are from Church families, and if some transportation method for bringing them under the religious influences of our Mission could be arrived at, this would be a great help. Let us realize more and more how the lives of the Deaf must center in their home and their Church, and use every opportunity to make the religious side more effective.

APPENDIX P

Report of Committee on Changes in Prayer Book

A report on the proposed changes in the Prayer Book is greatly restricted, as compared with previous years. Hitherto, while the revision was in process, amendments could be offered and suggestions made. But with the final proposals before us, we are confined to a mere expression of acquiescence or dissent. No opportunity is given for any desired improvement. It does not fall within our province to describe the work already accomplished or to offer any criticisms upon it. We are asked to make such comments, as may seem desirable, upon the material to be acted upon at the General Convention of 1928. It will be unnecessary to refer to the changes in detail, because they are no doubt familiar to you, having been printed as Appendix P in the Diocesan Journal of 1926. We venture the opinion that, on the whole, they are such as to justify the original intention of revision, in the way of flexibility and enrichment.

We may, however, call your attention to some of the main features. There is a useful rearrangement of the order of the several services, relating them more logically and intelligibly. The five principal parts of the Prayer Book are separated, each being given its special title-page. On most days, when the Litany or Holy Communion is to follow, the Morning Prayer may be further abbreviated beyond our present privilege. The opening invocations and responses of the Litany are shortened in the interest of religious simplicity. There is needed provision for a Collect, Epistle and Gospel for a large number of additional days and services. There are several desirable changes in translation of the Eucharistic Scriptures; as in the Epistle for the Third Sunday in Advent, "I know nothing against myself," instead of "by myself"; in the Gospel for the Second Sunday after Easter, "flock" for "fold"; in the Epistle for the First Sunday after Easter, omission of the superlatively doubtful Trinitarian text, "there are three which bear record in heaven"; and the substitution for the Gospel for the Fifteenth Sunday after Trinity of the translation in the American Revised Version. The optional use of prayers for the departed is granted in the Burial Office; but a similar petition is made a required part of the Prayer for Christ's Church Militant. The Benedictus Qui Venit is permitted at the end of the Sanctus. The practice of Intinction is authorized, but not imposed. The rubric concerning a hymn before reception has been omitted, apparently without intention. The services for Baptism are combined into one Office; in which the injunctions to the sponsors are displaced by specific questions and promises, and in the case of adults two questions are added to emphasize the meaning of Christian discipleship. The same thing is done in the Order for Confirmation. Two Offices of Instruction are substituted for the present Catechism, the whole of which, however, is included in them. The ministry of healing is recognized in the Order for the Visitation of the Sick. A large number of more or less valuable Collects for special occasions are added to the present meagre list.

There appear to be only two resolutions that are likely to excite any serious differences of opinion. One is the insertion of the Benedictus in the Communion Office. It is only fair to say that this was proposed at an earlier stage of the revision, and withdrawn. The objection then voiced was that in early liturgies it occupied an entirely different and more appropriate place in the service. Also that its introduction before the consecration, following the Roman order, might be quoted as an endorsement of the mediæval doctrine of the Presence. On the other hand, it was urged that it is now very largely used, even without legal authority, and doubtless will continue to be so used: that experience has shown it to be a real enrichment of the service; that the suggested rubric is permissive, not compulsory; and that its location is not the adoption of any Roman theories. Your committee has been unable to agree upon any recommendation in the premises.

The other controversial matter is the omission from within the covers of the Book of Common Prayer of the Articles of Religion. It is generally recognized that the XXXIX Articles have become a good deal antiquated. They never were incumbent upon the laity, and for many years past the clergy have been relieved of subscription to them. Not a few of them deal with extinct controversies: the language in some of them is felt today to be worthless as scientific definition, as in IX and XVII; and in others to be demonstrably unscriptural, as in the last two lines of Article II, and the whole of XIII on "Works before Justification."

However, it must be admitted that they are, considered as a whole, monuments of a historic position taken by this Church. This resolution creates the awkward situation that, if they are not printed with the Prayer Book, there is no provision for their publication anywhere. In that case, it would seem as though this action might be fairly interpreted as an official repudiation of that historic position. If such be the intent, it is pertinent to inquire whether so significant and momentous a decision should be reached in this incidental fashion. So large an issue should be debated on its own merits, and should not be met by indirection. It may reasonably be questioned whether their proper place is in a book of worship; and some experts have suggested that they be appended, as a historical document, to the Constitution and Canons. Their retention in some such place could hardly be objected to by those who would in any case disregard them.

We submit the following resolutions:

I. That this Convention endorses the action of the General Convention in bringing the revision to an end in 1928, in order that the new Prayer Book may be promptly put into the hands of the laity.

II. That we dissent from the combination of the Baptismal Offices into one, as tending to greater confusion and difficulty in their use.

III. That we approve of the liberty of Intinction, with the safeguards provided in the new rubric.

IV. That we express the hope that some legal means may be devised for the re-insertion of the rubric permitting a hymn before reception, as its omission is conceded to have been due to inadvertence.

V. That we agree to the omission of the Articles from the Prayer Book, provided expressly that place be found for them among some of the authorized documents of this Church, preferably as an appendix to the Constitution and Canons.

APPENDIX Q

Report of Committee on Executive Council and Office

The Committee appointed to examine the present constitution and operation of the Executive Council and Executive Office and report its findings and recommendations to the Annual Convention reports:

That it postponed its task till the completion of the Diocesan Campaign, and since that date has had a number of meetings. The Committee soon realized that the problems presented were more difficult than was apparent at first sight; that no examination was worthwhile unless it was thorough; and that no criticism could be of any value unless it was accompanied by suggested remedies or improvements.

The general plan of our Church's organization is as ancient as the Republic. The legislative function resides in the Convention (so far as a Diocese is left any power in this respect by our main legislative body, the General Convention.) The Bishop is the Executive Officer. The Standing Committee, in many matters pertaining to the Ministry, and matters of Church property is his council of advice, and in other matters, such as the election of a Bishop of another Diocese represents the Diocesan Convention. In addition the Diocese has its legal machinery with the Chancellor at its head, and its Convocations with their Deans and their close relation to the Mission work of the Diocese.

To this scheme the Executive Council was added seven years ago. Commissioned to organize various departments of Missions, Education, Social Service, Finance, Publicity, and Church Pensions; it was also instructed to organize and direct an Executive Office, and to prepare and submit to the Convention an Annual Budget.

These tasks it has fulfilled now for seven years, and it seems wise that some sort of stock-taking should be had of its achievements and methods.

Let us begin by saying that it has rendered efficient service in organizing the Diocesan activities. It has saved a great deal of time to the Convention in assuming the organization of the various departments. The Executive Secretary has done efficient work in bringing the Diocese into line with the newly-organized Missionary activities of the Church. The Executive Office has been most efficiently organized and managed, and the cost in a day of increasing expenses, has been kept down. Indeed, through the generosity of the Executive Secretary in relinquishing part of his salary, the expense of the office has decreased.

Still there have been bi-products of its activities and developments of its organization that call for consideration.

The name "Executive Council," has pointed to two possible lines of development; one, executive; the other, conciliar. An Executive Committee would be understood at once to be purely an executive agency, but an Executive Council suggests a legislative body in Executive session. The idea has sometimes been expressed that this Executive Council is the body delegated to act for the Convention between sessions. Of course such a conception brings the Executive Council into a conflict of powers with the Standing Committee, the Bishop's Constitutional Council of Advice. It is admitted that a clause of Canon VI, S. IV, Sub. Sec. 2, which runs, "It shall be the duty of the Council to suggest to the Convention from time to time such changes in legislation or methods as may seem to the Council to be of advantage to the work of the Church.", gives some color to this claim. It would be better to omit that section. Of course the Executive Council has the liberty of every other trusted agency to give its advice to the Convention. But that paragraph has created in the minds of some people the idea that "Changes in legislation and methods" can only properly or becomingly be introduced through the Executive Council. Such a conception would do much to lessen the interest of the Convention and the freedom of its deliberations. The Committee on Canons exists to sift and put in proper form such legislative proposals. In view of these misconceptions, "The Executive and Finance Committee" seems a better name for this Executive Body. As soon as we define its functions, as executive, then the size to which it has grown seems anomalous. The National Council has twenty-six members; Maryland has only eight members for its corresponding board; the membership of our Executive Council is forty-one, with several attendants without votes. In the multitude of Councilors there may be safety, but never have we heard a multitude of Executives praised. The Committee is unanimously of the opinion that the work would be facilitated if the membership were reduced, at most, to twenty-one, and the regular sessions reduced to once every other month, from October to June. The time of the Bishop and of the important persons who constitute such a Board ought to be husbanded. It is not a body created to awaken interest by securing a large attendance; it is a body for administration. Simplification of machinery lessens friction, lessens expenses, and increases efficiency.

Your Committee finds on analysis that the main tasks of the Executive Council relate to finance. After the various Departments have been created, it is not possible for the Executive Council to give much time to their problems. Indeed, we do not see how such supervision could be exercised without lessening the responsibility of the Department, or interposing a barrier between the Department and the Convention. We recommend that the various Departments be organized by the Bishop and Executive and Finance Committee with full authority to express their convictions directly to the Convention, and to the Community, if need be, and only required to secure the approval of the Executive Committee for their expenditures. By this procedure, the Executive Council or Committee can address itself entirely to the main concern of Finance, and the responsibility, interest and importance of the Departments and the Diocesan Convention will be increased. This last deserves a special emphasis because there has been a widespread feeling that the Convention as well as the Departments lose in dignity and importance, when the reports of the various Departments have to be "vise-ed" by the Executive Council before they are submitted to the Convention.

To compensate for this reduction in numbers the Committee suggests that the weight of the Executive Body be increased by eliminating the present machinery of election, in which Bishop, Standing Committee, Convocations, and Convention all have part, and that all the elective members be chosen by the Convention. It is the agent of the Convention to carry out its policy and it seems simplest to have the Convention elect directly.

The great obstacle to this method has been the Constitutional requirement of a majority in elections by the Convention. "All Officers and Committees appointed by ballot must in order to their election receive a majority of the whole number of votes cast at such election by each order" . . . so runs the beginning of Sec. 2, of Article VI, of the Constitution. If this article were amended so that it applied only to the Standing Committee and Deputies to the General Convention, while for other Officers and Committees a plurality vote would be sufficient, then the Convention could easily elect the members of this Committee on the first ballot and this important agency would be constituted by the body for which it acts.

Before submitting to the consideration of the Convention the resolutions necessary to effect these changes, and so ascertaining the mind of the Convention on the subject, it is necessary to speak of the office of the Executive Secretary. When this office was first created the plan was to have it take the full time of the Secretary and a salary of $7500 was suggested. Later on it was decided that it was not necessary to exact the full time of the incumbent, the salary was fixed at $6000, and a lawyer was elected to fill it, without resigning his professorship at the University Law School or his practice of law. His special equipment as a lawyer was undoubtedly a great help in organizing the Office and establishing a better system of raising the Diocesan Apportionments, Expectations, and Quotas. After this was accomplished, his tasks grew lighter and at his own motion the salary was reduced to $4000. His legal engagements make it impossible for the present Secretary to keep office hours. The question arises whether under the present developments the work of the Executive Secretary should be diminished, or increased, or combined with some other office. The present Executive Secretary's tenure of Office still has a year to run, but we learn that in order to facilitate the consideration of this administrative problem he has placed his resignation in the Bishop's hands, so that the Diocese may be able to consider the question whether the Office can be best met by a clergyman or layman, or by some new combination of secretaryships. Undoubtedly these are questions worth investigating.

Your Committee finds that they have been differently answered in different Dioceses, and that time is needed for appraising the merits of the various solutions. It feels also that our Executive Secretary has deserved well of the Diocese by his past services and generous conduct. It is therefore gratified that it is able to announce that the Bishop has requested him to complete his term. That will be the proper time for any proposals on this subject.

We therefore suggest that this Committee be continued with the scope of its commission enlarged, so as to cover the best organization of the work done by our salaried Secretaries.
